

29th Annual Native American Festival

Hosted by the Nause-Waiwash Band of Indians, Inc.

September 18 & 19, 2021

214 Middle Street, Vienna, Maryland 21869; Ball Field; Under the Water Tower

Tribe Seal Created By: KIRK F. TURNER, RED DEER

Featuring Special Attractions:

Falconer: Eric Werner

Spot the Leopard Appaloosa & Pixie Styx the pony Appaloosa

Host Drum: Medicine Horse

Guest Drum: NaMaWoChi

Master of Ceremonies: Bruce McWilliams

Native Food by Happy Eating Grounds

Rain or Shine

Admission: $7 pp - Children 4 & under are free

We are Handicap Friendly. Please NO Alcohol, Drugs, Pets or Attitudes. Service Animals are Welcome

MASKS ARE REQUIRED per CDC Guidelines

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Contact information: NWBI, 212 East Appleby Ave., Cambridge, MD 21613. 410-228-0216, www.turtletracks.org, Face Book, Twitter, Instagram:
@TheNWBI

Nause Waiwash Band of Indians: Pride in preserving our history, enhancing our culture and maintaining our traditions through education; now and for generations to come.

Native Music, Dance, Bake Table, Silent Auction, Raffles, Vendors, Food, Tomahawk Throw, Demonstrations, Exhibits, etc.

Admission: $7.00 per person. Children 4 and under are free.

This is a rain or shine event.

Bring your lawn chair or blankets and spend the day with us.

No alcohol, drugs, attitudes or pets permitted. Service animals welcome.

Gates Open 10:00 A.M. Saturday and Sunday; Concluding at 5:00 P.M. on Saturday & 4:00 P.M. on Sunday
Grand Entry is at Noon both days.

Open to the Public.  Handicap Friendly. MASK REQUIRED

Festival Etiquette

Good manners help EVERYONE enjoy the activities. By following these rules, everyone should find our festival a happy experience. Enjoy your visit with us. Pleasant journeys to ALL.

General Rules

- 🦋 Special seating is available for the disabled and elderly. Please respect the rights of the disabled and your elders to this special seating.
- 🦋 NO PETS ALLOWED. Animals often find the sight and sounds of a powwow frightening and other guests may not enjoy the company of furry, four-legged companions. To respect our other guests, and the safety of your pet, we ask, PLEASE, NO PETS. SERVICE ANIMALS ARE WELCOME.
- 🦋 Please respect MOTHER EARTH. There are several waste receptacles available for your convenience. PLEASE USE THEM.
- 🦋 Photographers are not allowed inside the dance arena. It is considered good manners to ask permission of an individual before taking his/her picture. Most people are honored to oblige. During certain events in the arena, our guests will be asked by the Master of Ceremonies to stand, remove their hats and/or refrain from taking photos. Please respect these requests.
- 🦋 NO DRUGS OR ALCOHOL PERMITTED. THERE WILL BE ZERO TOLERANCE. VIOLATORS WILL BE ESCORTED FROM THE FESTIVAL GROUNDS.
  - 🦋 Please keep your children under proper supervision. We want everyone to be safe while having a good time.
  - 🦋 Please do not break the circle. If you enter the arena, please enter at the designated entrance.

"Indian people tend to ignore or walk away from improper behavior rather than confront and embarrass the offender." W.E. McIntosh. Creeke Chief, retired.

Dance Arena

- 🦋 Dancers, Please be on time.
- 🦋 Dancers, please follow the Head Dancers. Some dances are for certain individuals only. The Head Dancers will know and lead you. Listen to the Master of Ceremonies. He will announce dance times and other important information.

Items of Interest *Please note, Times are approximate*

Saturday: Gate opens 10:00 A.M.
Grand Entry 12:00 P.M.
Story Telling
Falconry
Tomahawk Throw
Raffles
Gates Close 5:00 P.M.

Sunday: Gate opens 10:00 A.M.
Grand Entry 12:00 P.M.
Silent Auction Ends 2:30 P.M.
Falconry
Tomahawk Throw
Raffles
Gates Close 4:00 P.M.

Please drive carefully. Pleasant journeys. See you next year.

