

NWBI

37th

Annual Native American Festival

Saturday,
September 16th
2023
10a - 6p

Under the Water Tower!

The Nature Conservancy

HEART OF
CHESAPEAKE COUNTRY
HERITAGE AREA

HEART OF THE CHESAPEAKE
DORCHESTER
water moves us

Special Attractions: Hoop Dancer Angela Gladue of the Frog Lake First Nation, Alberta, Canada

Algonkian Living Historian of the 17th & 18th Century, Drew Shuptar-Rayvis, Cultural Ambassador of the Pocomoke Indian Nation

Master of Ceremonies: Bruce McWilliams
Medicine Horse Drummers and Singers
Zotigh Singers
Head Lady Dancer: Krystle "Jingles" Muntz
Head Gentleman Dancer: Ray Cochise Clark
Arena Director: Schirra Gray
Flutist: Doug Blair
Fire Devil Sticks Performed By: Nate Rader

Sound Production: BP Productions
Exhibits of Local Native American Artifacts with Collector Terry Crannell
Knapping Demonstration with Zeke Willey from Handsell
Decoy Carving Demonstration with Tom Bradshaw Demonstration of creating authentic Native American Arrows by:
Jesse "Running Arrow" Bartrum
Wampum Demonstration by Shane Rader as well as Pipe maker and Silversmith
Indian Tacos and Fry Bread by the Accohannock Indian Tribe
Other local Native American Cultural Demonstrations and Exhibits to be announced soon.

Silent Auction
Bake Table
Raffles

This is a One Day Only event. Rain or Shine
Gates open at 10:00 a.m. Grand Entry at Noon. Close at 6:00 p.m.

Check our Facebook frequently for updates.
@TheNWBI, nausewaiwash@gmail.com

Open to the Public. Admission is $7 pp. Children 4 and under are free.

Bring your lawn chair and spend the day with us.

The Ball Field (Under the Water Tower), 214 Middle Street, in beautiful Vienna, MD 21869